

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:06; sunset, 6:32.

Police have clue to slayer of Meda Yerlon.

Billy Sunday may postpone his Chicago visit.

Joe Trestik, prisoner in Joliet since 1906, escaped.

New auto of Peter Sampson, 711 Independence Blvd., stolen.

Six striking waiters arrested in front of Bismarck Gardens.

Chicago police asked to watch elections at Burnham tomorrow.

Philip Pastola, 815 W. Ohio, fell from street car; died of injuries.

Hotel Sherman thief got $48 from room of Dan Hanna, Cleveland.

Walter Matusak, 3, 910 Bismarck pl., fell into scalding water; died.

Wm. C. Thorne, 4815 Drexel Blvd., ex-pres. Montgomery Ward & Co., died.

Aaron W. Mitchell, 50, 2923 Warren av., fell from street car. Leg broken.

Burglars got $800 haul from home of Mrs. B. V. Newcomb, 4464 Woodlawn av.

Mrs. Antonio Gennaro, 902 Cambridge av., died, supposedly, from abortion.

Bandit got $20 from Wm. Dolson, 3717 Kimball av., conductor on Milwaukee av. car.

Chief Schuettler will issue police shake-up order tomorrow. New detective chief to be named.

Dave Montgomery, actor, reported dying in Presbyterian hospital. Fred Stone, stage partner, here.

Rev. Wm. Chalmers Covert urged preachers to work farms and gardens instead of golfing and fishing.

Gun fight followed dance at Second Regiment armory. Sol and Wm. Wiseburg, 1507 Taylor, arrested.

Lemuel V. Eastman, 1943 Warner av., and Anton Hjelm, 3718 Clifton av., killed by street cars. Martin Roman, 4438 Emerald av., and Samuel Groze, 546 Milwaukee av., badly injured.

Chicago police watching for four escaped prisoners from Michigan City Hospital for Criminal Insane.

Young woman asked Mrs. Anna Scorn, 1129 N. Spaulding av., if she could step inside and fix garter. $200 gone.

No more dances will be held in parish house of First Presbyterian church, Lake View. Elders and trustees tabooed them.

Normand Forquer, 12, 2650 Lexington, and Ray Fotel, 12, 2646 Lexington, badly burned by explosion of some liquid in bottle.

Chas. Barrett Holladay, 4653 Hazel av., and Loretta Jaffke, trailed to room by Mrs. Holladay, will be arraigned in court today.

Five auto bandits got $5 from Frank Norwood, 1261 Norwood av., and $60 overcoat from Robert Costello, 6057 Kenmore av.

Vincent Borovicka, owner, and six other men arrested in Excelsior Park saloon, 3532 Irving Park Blvd., Sunday. Woman tipped police.

Philip Shokovitz, 925 S. Seeley av., and Clara Lieffler, Green Bay, Wis., quizzed in connection with theft of $3,000 worth of auto tires from Central Tire Co.

Robert G. Wagner, 114 S. Lincoln, Pinkerton watchman, shot and wounded by safelower in Cox Multi-Mailer Co., 817 Washington Blvd. Robber escaped.

Joseph Smith, ex-policeman, sent to Joliet in 1913 for murder of sister-in-law, freed by state pardon board.

Hamilton club urges greater party loyalty by Republicans.

Frank Daley, great regent Royal Arcanum in Chicago, indignant at news that receiver was appointed for supreme council in Boston. Says Chicago Arcanum is solvent.

Edw. Jedlicka, 2630 Spaulding av., arrested on charge of sending photo of Bessie Kovanda, 2513 S. Kedzie av., to State's Atty. Hoyne as "blonde woman" in Higgins murder case.